DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: page 3, line 13 refers to claims 1-14. This format is not acceptable because the claim may be canceled (as in the instant application) or the content changed.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: The specification does not state that the preproduct drops have a diameter of 0.3 to 3 mm as indicated in claim 20. The limitation is in original claim 11.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 33-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The apparatus claims appear to depend from the process claims which is an improper format.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 33-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mahl, Jr. et al in view of Cramer.

7. Mahl, Jr. et al discloses an apparatus for forming drops using a nozzlehead (3), drop tower (1), heat exchanger (6), fan means (4) and recycle line. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use a nozzlehead with vibrational stimulation to drops of 0.3 to 3 mm because Cramer shows that this configuration is used in drop towers. See examples where screen sizes are 8-14 (1.19-2.83 mm). The length of the drop tower would have been obvious based on the material being processed as it need to be long enough so that the drops solidify before reaching the bottom but not so long as to require extra energy for the countercurrent air flow velocity.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 20-32 are allowed.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art does not suggest using vibrational stimulation to form drops of 0.3

Art Unit: 1732

to 3 mm which is introduced into a gaseous medium that accelerates crystallization of the drops.
